INTRO

G            Bm            (X 3)
C            D

VERSE 1

G
Won't you come and meet me,

I'll take you out for breakfast
Bm
We'll be happy to be clinging on
C
Together evermore

Well ain't that what they always
G        D
Said this life was foooooorr?

G
It's the morning after,

And I won't see you later
Bm
Watch the moon go down and
C
Sun come up today

I might look tired,
G        D
but I have never been so awake

CHORUS 1

Am            C            G        D
We used to laugh about growing old,
Am            C            G        D        G        Bm        G        Bm
Yeah we used to laugh but it's too late now

VERSE 2

G
Down the stairs and hallways

To the Ivory Coast
Bm
The mantelpiece is full of places
C
I will never go

But then through all the highs

G D
And lows you never knooooow

G
So won't you come and see me

And I won't make you grieve me
Bm
We'll write a letter to the government

C
Asking why, we poured our lives in 9 to 5's

G D
And now we're dryyyyyy

CHORUS 2

Am C G D
We used to laugh about growing old,
Am C G D G Bm G Bm
Yeah we used to laugh but it's too late now

BRIDGE

G Bm
These are just laughter tears
G Bm
They are not real
G Bm G Bm
Ipods and plasma screens, bleed like they feel

CHORUS 3

Am C G D
We used to laugh about growing old,
Am C G D G
Yeah we used to laugh but it's too late now
